EXCHANGE VOWS . . . Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hanni, whose wedding was solemnized recently at a Long Beach wedding chapel. Honeymooning in San Francisco, he was separated from the armed forces following 19 months as a motor machinist's mate 2/c, USCG. They will live here.

Normandy Wedding Chapel in Long Beach was the setting for the recent marriage of Miss Winona Ely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ely, of 1824 Arlington ave., to T. C. Hanni, United States Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ward of Lomita. The attractive brunette bride wore powder blue silk crepe complemented with an orchid bridal corsage.

Mrs. Elsie Hanni served as matron of honor for her sister-in-law and Carl Hanni, U.S.C.G., attended his brother. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Later, the couple left for a honeymoon in San Francisco, where the bridegroom received his honorable discharge, following 19 months' Pacific duty.

Both were graduated from Torrance high school. Before he entered service, the bridegroom was employed at National Supply Company. Upon her return, Mrs. Hanni will resume her duties as bookkeeper at El Prado Furniture Company.

JUNIOR CLUBWOMEN AT THEATRE PARTY
"Blossom Time" at Biltmore Theatre, Los Angeles, recently enjoyed by about 35 members and friends of Torrance Junior Woman's Club was a highlight of the club's activities.

In charge of ticket reservations and transportation were Mrs. Jack McCune and Mrs. John Ritchie.
